

The Town of Los Altos Hills depends on its volunteer citizens. There are many opportunities to contribute to its direction and vision and to make the Town the best it can be for all who call it home. Over 120 residents are members of the Town’s advisory committees. You can make a difference by volunteering to become a member of one of these committees, where you can meet fellow residents and support the Town with your participation and experience. Play an active role in determining the future of your town!

Notice of openings for applications for committees are posted and published on the town website, through email blasts and periodically advertised in the newspapers.
